

Australian Physiotherapy Association

2023 Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Physiotherapy Scholarship

The Australian Physiotherapy Association (APA) recognises the importance of a strong Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander physiotherapy workforce, and the significant contribution that physiotherapists make to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health. The APA strives to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander physiotherapists and grow the number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people entering the profession.

As part of our commitment, the APA is offering the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Physiotherapy Scholarship to support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students who are currently studying towards a physiotherapy degree.

Up to four Scholarships are being awarded in 2023.

Scholarship value

The value of each Scholarship is $5,000, which will be provided in one lump-sum payment.

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for the Scholarship, applicants must:

- Be an Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person; and
- Be enrolled in a physiotherapy degree at an Australian university.

For the purposes of this Scholarship, an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person is someone:

- who is of Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent.
- who identifies as an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person; and
- is accepted as such by the community in which he or she lives or has lived.

How to apply

Applicants are required to complete the below application form and submit it, along with the required documentation to the APA by the nominated closing date.

Applicants should also ensure they have read and understood the full Terms and Conditions of the Scholarship.

Scholarship selection

The Scholarship will be awarded to successful recipients on the recommendation of an APA selection panel. Preference will be given to applicants who do not already hold any other scholarship or bursary. Applicants must declare on the application form whether they hold a current scholarship or bursary.

Scholarship recipients are required to be/become APA members and commit to maintaining membership for five (5) years after completion of their studies.
