- 12.2 All Members must comply with and observe this Constitution and Regulations and any determination or resolution which may be made or passed by the Association or the Board.

- 12.3 All Members must comply with any code of conduct, ethical principles, policies, procedures and clinical standards which may be created or amended by the Board from time to time.
- 12.4 All Members must meet all liabilities and requirements specified in this Constitution and the Regulations as attaching to their category of membership.
- 12.5 All Members submit to the jurisdiction of the State of Victoria in respect of any disputes between a Member and the Association.

13. Annual Membership Fees

Annual Membership Fees

- 13.1 Each Member must pay to the Association any annual membership fees as determined by the Board.
- 13.2 The annual membership fee is the fee for each category of membership as determined by the Board.
- 13.3 A Financial Member is a Member who pays the annual membership fees applicable for their category of membership.
- 13.4 The Board may, at its sole discretion:
- (a) determine that no annual membership fee is payable for one or more categories of membership; and
 - (b) vary the annual membership fee for any category of membership.
- 13.5 Subject to clause 13.3, the annual membership fee must be paid:
- (a) annually in advance; or
 - (b) in accordance with a payment arrangement (which may include an administration fee) as determined by the Board.
- 13.6 The Board may, at its sole discretion, determine any payment arrangement (which may include an administration fee) for the payment of the annual membership fee for any category of membership.
- 13.7 The Board may, at its sole discretion, determine to waive any requirement for payment by any Member of the annual membership fee.
- 13.8 A Member who has been granted a discretion by the Board under clauses 13.6 and 13.7 or for whom clause 14.1 is not applicable, continues to be a Financial Member.
- 13.9 The Association must notify a Member in writing of the due date for the payment of their next year's annual membership fee at least one calendar month before their next year's annual membership fee is due for payment.

Administration Fee

- 13.10 The Board may require a person to pay an administration fee if the person pays the annual membership fee in accordance with a payment arrangement determined by the Board.
- 13.11 The Board may, at its sole discretion, determine the administration fee payable in relation to a payment arrangement.

14. Non-payment of Annual Membership Fee

- 14.1 Subject to clauses 13.6 and 13.7, a Member whose annual membership fee are in arrears:
- (a) for less than three months – is a Non-Financial Member; or
 - (b) for three months or greater – ceases to be a Member.

14.2 The Board may, at its sole discretion and on such terms as it thinks fit, reinstate a Member if the Member pays all their arrears of any annual membership fees.

15. Cessation, Suspension and Cancellation of Membership

15.1 In addition to clause 14.1(b), a Member immediately ceases to be a Member if they:

- (a) give the Association written notice of their resignation;
- (b) engage in any conduct which is determined by the PBA, or other commission, tribunal or court of competent jurisdiction to be professional misconduct;
- (c) subject to a determination by the Board at its sole discretion:
 - (i) cease to be eligible to be a Member pursuant to clause 10;
 - (ii) are in breach of this Constitution as determined by the Board at its sole discretion;
 - (iii) at the time of application to the Association for membership, provide false or misleading information; or
 - (iv) bring the Association, its Members or the physiotherapy profession into disrepute.

15.2 The Board may at its sole discretion suspend the membership of any Member pending a decision by the Board pursuant to clause 15.1(c).

15.3 The Association must notify a Member in writing if the Board suspends or cancels their membership under this clause 15 and provide the reason for the suspension or cancellation.

16. Appeal to Suspension and Cancellation of Membership

Appeal

16.1 If any Member receives notification pursuant to clause 15.3 that the Board has suspended or cancelled their Membership, the respective Member may, within 30 days of the date the Member receives the notification, lodge a written appeal (the Appeal) to the Association to be reinstated.

Board Review

16.2 The Board must, if reasonably possible, review and consider the Appeal at the next Board meeting after the Association receives the Appeal.

16.3 The Board may decide to:

- (a) reinstate the Member; or
- (b) affirm the decision to suspend or cancel their Membership.

16.4 The Association must notify the Member in writing of the Board's decision under clause 16.3.

16.5 The Board's decision under clause 16.3 is final.

PART C – GENERAL MEETINGS

17. Annual General Meeting

17.1 The Association must hold an Annual General Meeting in accordance with the Act.

18. Extraordinary General Meetings

18.1 All general meetings, other than the Annual General Meetings, are Extraordinary General Meetings.

18.2 The Board may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting:

- (a) as required under this Constitution;
- (b) as required under the Act; and
- (c) at any time it thinks fit.

19. General Meetings

19.1 The Board must give at least 21 days written notice of every General Meeting to:

- (a) every Member, except those Voting Members who (having no registered address within Australia) have not supplied to the Association an address within Australia;
- (b) every Director; and
- (c) the auditor or auditors of the Association, except:
- (d) for special resolutions which requires notice in accordance with the Act; and
- (e) where there is an agreement for shorter notice between the Voting Members.

19.2 A notice of a General Meeting must include:

- (a) the place of the meeting;
- (b) the date of the meeting;
- (c) the time of the meeting; and
- (d) the business to be transacted at the General Meeting.

19.3 A General Meeting may, at the sole discretion of the Board, be held in two or more places linked together by any technology (which allows for a wholly virtual meeting or a hybrid meeting) that:

- (a) gives the Members present at those places a reasonable opportunity to participate in proceedings;
- (b) enables the Chairperson to be aware of proceedings in each place; and
- (c) enables the Members in each place to vote on a poll.

19.4 If a General Meeting is held in two or more places in accordance with clause 19.3:

- (a) a Member present at one of those places is taken to be present at the General Meeting; and
- (b) whether or not it is held using virtual meeting technology, the place of the meeting is taken to have been held at the main physical venue of the meeting as set out in the notice of the meeting; or
- (c) if the meeting is held using virtual meeting technology only, the place of the meeting is taken to have been held at the registered office of the Association.

PART D – PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

20. Quorum

20.1 No business can be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present.

20.2 The quorum for any General Meeting is 30 Voting Members.

20.3 For the purpose of this clause, "Voting Member" excludes a person attending as a proxy.

- 20.4 Subject to clauses 20.5 and 20.6, if a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for a General Meeting, the meeting stands adjourned to a date determined by the Board.
- 20.5 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for an AGM:
- (a) the meeting may nevertheless receive:
 - (i) the Annual Report;
 - (ii) the audited financial statements; and
 - (iii) the report of the results of elections,but no other business may be transacted; and
 - (b) the AGM stands adjourned to a date determined by the Board that is:
 - (i) more than 28 days after the date of the original meeting; and
 - (ii) not more than 15 months after the previous AGM.
- 20.6 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for an Extraordinary General Meeting convened by requisition of Voting Members, the meeting is dissolved.
- 20.7 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for an adjourned meeting, two Voting Members present in person or by proxy constitute a quorum.
- 20.8 The business transacted at any adjourned meeting must only be the business left unfinished at the General Meeting from which the adjournment took place.

21. Chairperson at General Meetings

- 21.1 The Chairperson, elected in accordance with clause 26.1, will preside as chair at every General Meeting.
- 21.2 If, at any General Meeting, the Chairperson:
- (a) is absent;
 - (b) is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting; or
 - (c) is unwilling to act,
- the President will preside as chair for that meeting.
- 21.3 If the President is not present or is unwilling to act, a Vice President will preside as chair for that meeting.
- 21.4 If no Vice President is present or willing to act, the Voting Members present must elect a Director present to preside as chair for that meeting.

22. Adjourning Meeting

- 22.1 The Voting Members present at a General Meeting may by Majority resolution adjourn the meeting.
- 22.2 If a General Meeting is adjourned for 28 days or more, the Secretary must give all people entitled to receive a notice of a General Meeting under clause 19.1 notice of the time and place of the adjourned General Meeting 21 days prior to the adjourned General Meeting.
- 22.3 A notice of an adjourned meeting does not need to state the business to be transacted.
- 22.4 The business transacted at any adjourned meeting must only be the business left unfinished at the General Meeting from which the adjournment took place.

23. Proceedings and Voting

Voting Rights

- 23.1 General Members and Distinguished Members are entitled to one vote.
- 23.2 If votes on an ordinary resolution are equal, the Chairperson of the General Meeting may exercise a casting vote.

Show of Hands

- 23.3 Subject to the Act, at any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote will be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) by the Chairperson; or
 - (b) by at least two Members present in person or by proxy.
- 23.4 On a show of hands every person present who is a:
- (a) Voting Member; or
 - (b) an authorised representative, attorney or proxy of a Voting Member, has one vote.
- 23.5 A resolution is carried if supported by a Majority of Voting Members present at a General Meeting in person or by proxy.
- 23.6 Either:
- (a) a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried (unanimously or by a particular majority) or lost; and
 - (b) an entry in the minutes of the Association showing the result of the resolution, is conclusive evidence of the result of the resolution, except where a poll is demanded.

Poll

- 23.7 Any poll must be taken in such a manner as the Chairperson directs.
- 23.8 On a poll every Voting Member present:
- (a) in person;
 - (b) by proxy; or
 - (c) by other duly authorised representative, has one vote on their own behalf and one vote for every proxy they hold.
- 23.9 The result of any poll is the resolution of a General Meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 23.10 Notwithstanding clause 23.8, a poll demanded on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

24. Proxy

- 24.1 A Voting Member may by written instrument appoint another person to act as their proxy to attend, speak and vote in their place at a General Meeting.
- 24.2 An instrument appointing a proxy is not valid and must not be recognised by the Chairperson of the General Meeting unless it complies with this clause 24.
- 24.3 An instrument appointing a proxy must be sent by the Voting Member to the Association at least 72 hours before the time for holding the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the Voting Member proposes to vote.

- 24.4 The instrument appointing a proxy must be in the form approved by the Board.
- 24.5 An instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing and signed by the Voting Member.
- 24.6 A proxy appointment does not need to be accompanied by any supporting authority unless the appointment is signed under a power of attorney, in which case a copy of the power of attorney (or a certified copy) must be provided with the appointment.
- 24.7 A Voting Member may instruct their proxy to vote in favour of or against any proposed resolutions.
- 24.8 A proxy may vote as they think fit, unless otherwise instructed in accordance with clause 24.7.
- 24.9 By appointing a proxy, a Voting Member authorises the proxy to demand, or join in demanding, a poll.
- 24.10 A vote cast by a proxy or attorney is valid even if, before the vote is cast:
 - (a) the member who appointed them has died or lost legal capacity; or
 - (b) the appointment has been revoked,

unless the Secretary has received written notice of the death, loss of capacity or revocation before the General Meeting (or adjourned General Meeting) begins.

PART E – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

25. Directors

- 25.1 The Board of Directors must consist of a minimum of five Directors and a maximum of nine Directors. Further, the Board has the discretion to extend the term of any Member Director or Vice President (excluding the Chairperson, the President, the Immediate Past President and External Director) where their term has expired, by a further one-year term, in exceptional circumstances where three or more members of the Board are exiting in any given year.
- 25.2 The Board of Directors must comprise:
 - (a) the Chairperson;
 - (b) the President;
 - (c) subject to clause 30.1, up to two Vice Presidents;
 - (d) subject to clause 28, the Immediate Past President;
 - (e) subject to clause 29, the President Elect;
 - (f) one or more Member Directors; and
 - (g) subject to clause 25.3(b), External Directors.
- 25.3 Subject to clause 25.1, the Board may from time to time and at its sole discretion determine:
 - (a) the number of Member Directors; and
 - (b) whether the Board will include any Directors elected or appointed pursuant to clause 32.
- 25.4 Any Director who is not elected or appointed pursuant to clause 32 must be a Member.

26. Chairperson

26.1 The Chairperson will preside at every Board meeting and will be elected by the Board from among the Member Directors, at the Board's discretion, for a maximum of two terms of two years each. The process for election of the Chairperson is set out in the Board Elections Policy.

26.2 If at any Board meeting:

- (a) there is no Chairperson;
- (b) the Chairperson is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting;
or
- (c) the Chairperson is unwilling to preside, the President will preside as chair for that meeting. If the President is not present or is unwilling to preside, the Directors must choose a Vice President to preside as chair for that meeting. If no Vice President is present or willing to preside, the Directors must choose one of the Directors present to preside as chair for that meeting.

Chairperson's Powers

26.3 The Chairperson is an ex officio member of all councils, Committees, panels and working parties of all Committees and groups of the Association.

26.4 The Board may vest in the Chairperson such powers and authority as it may determine.

26.5 The Chairperson will exercise all such powers and authority in accordance with the Board's direction.

27. President

Nominations

27.1 A Director (excluding the Immediate Past President and any External Director) may in the year the President's term ceases, self-nominate to be President.

Eligibility

27.2 Subject to the discretion of the Board to the contrary, to be nominated for the position of President, a Director must, immediately prior to the closing date for nominations, have served at least twelve (12) continuous months on the Board.

Election of President

27.3 If only one Director is nominated for the position of President, that Director is the President from the date specified in clause 27.5.

27.4 If more than one Director is nominated for the position of President, the Board must elect the President in accordance with the election procedures determined by the Board.

Term of President

27.5 Subject to clause 27.6, each President's term:

- (a) commences on 1 January of the year after the date they are elected; and
- (b) ceases two years after the date their term commenced unless they cease to hold the position earlier in accordance with this Constitution.

27.6 The Board may permit a person whose first term as President will cease under clause 27.5(b) to be re-elected as President for one further two year term in accordance with the Board Elections Policy.

President's Powers

27.7 The President is an ex officio member of all councils, Committees, panels and working parties of all

Committees and groups of the Association.

27.8 The Board may vest in the President such powers and authority as it may determine.

27.9 The President will exercise all such powers and authority in accordance with the Board's direction.

Cessation of President

27.10 The Board may suspend or remove the President at their full discretion.

27.11 If the President becomes temporarily incapable of performing their duties, the Board may appoint another Director to act as President on a temporary basis.

28. Immediate Past President

28.1 The Board may in its sole discretion fill the Immediate Past President position created by clause 25.2(d) for a period not exceeding twelve (12) months immediately after the date that the President's term ceases under clause 27.5(b).

29. President Elect

29.1 The Board may in its sole discretion fill the position of President Elect created by clause 25.2(e) pursuant to the terms of this clause.

29.2 The Board may appoint a President Elect in the second year of the:

- (a) first term of a current President who will cease to be President in accordance with clause 27.5(b);
or
- (b) second term of a President that was re-elected in accordance with clause 27.6.

29.3 Where a President Elect is appointed by the Board in accordance with clause 29.2, the nomination procedure and term of the President Elect are as follows:

- (a) a Director (excluding the Immediate Past President and any External Directors) may self-nominate to be President Elect in the second year of the term of the President (whether during the first term or a second term).
- (b) subject to the discretion of the Board, the nominee must have served at least twelve (12) continuous months on the Board immediately prior to the closing date for nominations;
- (c) if only one Director is nominated for the position of President Elect, that Director is the President Elect;
- (d) if more than one Director is nominated for the position of President Elect, the Board must elect the President Elect in accordance with the election procedures determined by the Board; and
- (e) subject to the discretion of the Board, the term of the appointed President Elect will take effect at the date of their appointment.

29.4 Subject otherwise to the other terms of clause 27, the President Elect will cease their term on 31 December and commence to be the President on 1 January of the following year in accordance with clause 27.5.

29.5 For avoidance of doubt, the appointed President Elect does not exercise the powers of the President until they are appointed as President pursuant to clause 27.5.

30. Vice Presidents

30.1 The Board may, from time to time, determine whether the Board will include one or two Vice Presidents.

Nominations

30.2 A Director (excluding the President, the Immediate Past President and any External Director) may in the year any Vice President's term ceases self-nominate to be a Vice President.

Eligibility

- 30.3 To be nominated for a position of Vice President, a Director must immediately prior to the closing date for nominations, have served at least six (6) continuous months on the Board.

Election of Vice Presidents

- 30.4 Subject to clause 30.1, if the number of Directors nominated to be a Vice President does not exceed the number of vacant positions, those Directors nominated under clause 30.2 will each be appointed as a Vice President from the date specified in clause 30.6.
- 30.5 If the number of Directors nominated to be a Vice President exceeds the number of vacant positions, the Board must elect the Vice President(s) in accordance with the Board Elections Policy.

Term of Vice President

- 30.6 Any Director elected to the position of Vice President takes office from 1 January in the year immediately following their election and holds office for two years ending on 31 December in the second year unless they cease to hold the position earlier in accordance with this Constitution.
- 30.7 A person whose first term as Vice President will cease under clause 30.6 may be:
- (a) appointed to the position of President Elect in accordance with clause 29 or President in accordance with clause 27; or
 - (b) appointed to the position of Chairperson; or
 - (c) eligible to be re-elected to the position of Vice President for one further two year term in accordance with the Board Elections Policy.

Vice President's Powers

- 30.8 The Board may vest in a Vice President such powers and authority as it may from time to time determine.
- 30.9 A Vice President will exercise all such powers and authority in accordance with the Board's direction.

Cessation of Vice President

- 30.10 The Board may suspend or remove the Vice President.
- 30.11 If the Vice President becomes incapable of performing their duties, the Board may appoint another Director to act as Vice President on a temporary basis.

31. Member Directors

Number and vote of Member Directors

- 31.1 Subject to clause 25.1, the Board may, from time to time, determine the number of Member Directors to be included on the Board.
- 31.2 A Member who is nominated for election as a Director and who satisfies the eligibility criteria in clause 31.4(a) is entitled to vote in that Board election, including casting a vote for themselves.

Election of Member Directors

- 31.3 The NAC, Branch Councils, National Group National Committees, Board, National Professional Standards Panel, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Committee, College Council, Journal of Physiotherapy Editorial Board, National Rural Advisory Committee and the LGBTQIA+ National Committee may together elect any Member Directors in accordance with the Board Elections Policy.

Eligibility of Member Directors

31.4 To be nominated as a Member Director, a person must be nominated and seconded in writing by two Members in accordance with the Board Elections Policy and be:

(a) a current or previous Member of:

- the Board;
- the NAC;

Term of Member Directors

- 31.5 A Member Director holds office from 1 January in the year immediately following their election and holds office for three years ending on 31 December in the third year unless they cease to hold the position earlier in accordance with this Constitution.
- 31.6 A person whose first term as a Member Director will cease under clause 31.5 may:
- (a) self-nominate for the position as Chairperson in accordance with the Board Elections Policy;
 - (b) self-nominate for the position of President in accordance with the Board Elections Policy;
 - (c) self-nominate for the position of Vice President in accordance with the Board Elections Policy or
 - (d) be re-elected as a Member Director for one further three-year term in accordance with the Board Elections Policy.

Consecutive term limit

- 31.7 A person must not serve more than two consecutive terms as a Member Director.

32. External Directors

Number of External Directors

- 32.1 The Board may from time to time and at its sole discretion determine whether the Board will include External Directors.

Appointment of External Directors

- 32.2 The Board may appoint any External Directors in accordance with the Board Elections Policy.

Eligibility of External Directors

- 32.3 To be an External Director, a person must not:
- (a) have any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to interfere with, the independent exercise of their judgement in relation to the Association;
 - (b) be an employee of the Association; or
 - (c) be eligible to be a Member.

Term of External Directors

- 32.4 An External Director holds office from the date of their appointment for 3 years unless they cease to hold the position earlier in accordance with this Constitution. A person whose first term as an External Director will cease under this clause may be eligible to be re-appointed as an External Director for two further three year terms.

33. Limitations on Former Directors

- 33.1 A person who ceases to hold office as a Director, whether at the end of a term or by resignation, and is not immediately re-elected or re-appointed to the Board without any break in service:
- (a) is not eligible to be elected or appointed as a Director for a period of two years from the date they cease to hold office; and
 - (b) must not hold any position on the Board or the NAC for a period of two years from the date they cease to hold office.

34. Maximum Tenure

34.1 A person must not serve more than 15 years in aggregate as a Director, including as an Office Bearer, of the Association.

35. Remuneration of Directors

35.1 Despite clause 59.2, the Board may resolve to pay remuneration to a Director.

35.2 A Director's remuneration must be a fixed sum and must not be based on a commission or a percentage of the turnover of the Association.

35.3 The Association may reimburse a Director for travelling and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses properly incurred by the Director on the Association's business, in accordance with any policy approved by the Board from time to time.

35.4 If a Director renders services to the Association in a professional or technical capacity, other than in their capacity as a Director, and the provision of those services has the prior approval of the Board, the Association may pay the Director an amount that is:

- (a) approved by resolution of the Board;
- (b) on reasonable commercial terms; and
- (c) in addition to any remuneration or reimbursement payable under this clause 35.

36. Termination of Directors

36.1 Nothing in this Constitution limits the rights of Voting Members under the Act to remove a Director from office.

36.2 Subject to the Act, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

- (a) resigns office by written notice to the Association;
- (b) becomes disqualified from managing corporations under the Act;
- (c) dies;
- (d) ceases to meet the eligibility criteria for appointment or election as a Director under this Constitution;

- (h) becomes incapable of managing their own affairs; or
- (i) is the subject of a final finding by a court, tribunal or relevant professional body of professional misconduct, or other conduct which the Board reasonably determines is materially inconsistent with holding office as a Director.

37. Casual Vacancy

37.1 The Board may appoint any Member who meets the relevant eligibility criteria as a Director to fill a casual vacancy on the Board.

37.2 Any Member Director appointed under clause 37.1 will hold office for the balance of the term of the Director whose absence is being filled.

37.3 Any Member Director filling a casual vacancy is deemed to have completed a full term of office as a Director notwithstanding that the period actually served is less than the full term of office for a Director.

PART F – POWERS OF DIRECTORS

38. Powers

38.1 The Board will:

- (a) control and manage the business and affairs of the Association; and
- (b) exercise all such power and do all such things as may be exercised or done by the Association, except for anything which this Constitution or the Act requires to be exercised or implemented by the Association in General Meeting.

38.2 No action must be taken against the Board for any act or decision it makes in accordance with this Constitution, if there is a subsequent resolution by the Association in General Meeting invalidating the act or decision.

PART G – MEETING OF DIRECTORS

39. Board Meetings

39.1 The Board must meet at least four times each calendar year to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

39.2 The Board may adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings and proceedings at its sole discretion.

39.3 Three or more Directors may request a Board meeting.

39.4 All Directors must be given at least seven days notice of a Board meeting, unless agreed otherwise by the Directors.

39.5 The Secretary must give each Director written notice of a Board meeting. The notice must:

- (a) specify the day, time and place of the meeting; and
