

Australian College of Physiotherapists: Standing Committees Nomination Form

The ACP Standing Committees provide advice and guidance on the APA Career Pathway; they report into the ACP Council (College Council).

Definitions of the College Council and College standing committees are outlined below:

ACP Australian College of Physiotherapists Council (College Council) means the group of members who provide strategic oversight on education programs and professional development that contribute to the lifelong learning needs of the career pathways of physiotherapists with Standing Committees of Admissions, Fellowship Programs, Complaints, Grievances and Appeals, Credentialing, Education Quality and Faculties Programs.

ACP Admissions Standing Committee (ASC) means the committee of members who promote objectivity, consistency and transparency in the process of admission to credentialed pathways.

ACP Appeals, Complaints and Grievances Standing Committee (ACGSC) means the committee of members who hear any complaint, grievance or appeal within its remit, in a timely manner according to principles of natural justice and the policy and procedures of the Association.

ACP Credentialing Standing Committee means the committee of members who provide advice on the attainment of competence for credentialed programs.

ACP Education Quality Standing Committee (EQSC) means the committee of members who provide advice on the assurance of quality performance in education activities.

ACP Fellowship Programs Standing Committee (FSPSC) means the committee of members who provide advice on the development, implementation, policies and procedures, maintenance and currency of quality in curriculum design and delivery of Fellowship programs.

The ACP Standing Committees are calling for nominations for members to take up a three year term on a standing committee. You may nominate for more than one ACP Standing committee.

Summary below of nominations that are open

ACP Admissions Standing Committee (ASC)	Four (4) vacancies (Please note 3 of the vacancies are open to FACP only)
ACP Appeals, Complaints and Grievances Standing Committee (ACGSC)	Two (2) vacancies (Please note vacancies are open to FACP only)
ACP Education Quality Standing Committee	Three (3) vacancies (Please note vacancies are open to FACP only and not open to SEPA members)
ACP Fellowship Programs Standing Committee	Three (3) vacancies (Please note vacancies are not open to MPA members and 2 of the vacancies are open to FACP only)

If successful in standing for more than one position, the member may need to assess workload, and potential conflict of interest in determining the acceptance of the positions.

The term of office will run from 1st January 2021 until 31 December 2023, and successful nominees will have the option of re-nominating to serve on the ACP standing committee for a total of two consecutive terms of three years.

If more nominations are received than positions available, a ballot will be held. Otherwise nominee(s) will be elected unopposed.

The Australian College of Physiotherapists encourages physiotherapists from metropolitan and rural or remote areas, and physiotherapists from all states and territories who have a passion for progressing the work of the APA Career Pathway.

The ACP standing committees generally meet via videoconference in a regular cycle that is determined by the committee and APA administrator.

ACP Standing committees will meet the composition as determined by the APA Committee regulations (https://australian.physio/sites/default/files/APA_Committee_Regulations.pdf) 11.3 and 11.4
