

National Advisory Council Chairperson: Call for Nominations

Nominations are now being called for the position of Chairperson of the Australian Physiotherapy Association's (APA's) National Advisory Council (NAC).

The NAC Chairperson must be:

- a voting NAC representative who has served on the NAC for a period of at least 12 months immediately prior to the closing date for nomination; or
- a current member of a Branch Council who has served on that Branch Council for a period of at least 12 months immediately prior to the closing date for nomination; or
- a current member of a National Group National Committee who has service on that National Group National Committee for a period of at least 12 months; or
- an office bearer of a Branch Council or National Group National Committee who has served as an office bearer on that Branch Council or National Group National Committee for a period of at least two years in the five years immediately prior to the closing date for nominations.

The call for nominations for the NAC Chair opens Thursday 1 October 2020.

A nomination form is attached and must be returned to the Returning Officer (the APA's CEO) by the closing date for nominations, 5.00pm Wednesday 21 October 2020.

If more than one nomination is received, an election will take place.

The elected Chairperson will take office from 1 January 2021 for a two year term (ending on 31 December 2022).

Nomination forms may be submitted marked to the attention of the CEO, by the following means:
