

Veterans' access to physiotherapy is at risk.

If the Federal Government's Department of Veterans' Affairs funding remains unchanged:

Less access to critical care for veterans

Less treatments available for veterans

The Royal Commission into Defence and Veteran Suicide recommended an increase to the current fee schedule to ensure veterans receive the essential care they deserve.

Veterans deserve access to physiotherapy

Government funding model fails to provide the care that veterans need

Physiotherapy is essential to treating the most common physical injuries affecting Australian's veterans.

The government is failing to ensure veterans can access essential care - today, and into the future.
